DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's Appeal Brief and Inventor Declaration filed 9/12/07 have been fully considered and entered. Applicant's arguments are found persuasive to overcome the obviousness rejections of claims 1-18 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hoopengardner, US 4,990,399 in view of Kohlhammer et al., US 6,559,259 and further in view of JP 07195637A as set forth in section 3 of the Final Office Action dated 4/17/07. Specifically, the combination of prior art fails to teach the features of claim 1 and a lack of motivation exists to combine references as previously set forth. As such, claims 1-18 are found allowable over for reasons set forth herein below.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 1-18.

Claims 1-18 are found allowable over the cited art because the combination of references fail to teach the claimed features of independent claim 1. In addition, a lack of motivation exists to combine references on the grounds that the adhesive set forth in the primary reference of Hoopengardner is taught as pressure sensitive whereas the adhesive products provided by the combination of Kohlhammer et al., in view of the published JP reference are a hot melt. There is no suggestion or teaching to substitute the pressure sensitive adhesive of Hoopengardner with the hot melt adhesive provided by the combination of Kohlhammer et al., in view of the published JP reference. Additionally, the combination of prior art also fails to teach the claimed ethylene-vinyl acetate polymer comprising the claimed crystalline ethylene segments prepared by the claimed emulsion process. An updated art search did not produce any substantial new art for which to base a rejection and presently no motivation exists to combine references to form an obviousness type rejection.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
